

- 1 INTRODUCTION: FIELDWORK AS AN IMPORTANT TOOL FOR SOCIAL SCIENCES AND PUBLIC POLICIES
- 2 THE QUESTIONNAIRE
  - 2.1 The questionnaire conception and process*
  - 2.2 Sampling problem*
  - 2.3 Designing questions*
  - 2.4 Validity and robustness*
- 3 THE INTERVIEW
  - 3.1 Structured or semi-structured interview*
  - 3.2 Conducting interviews: Step by step*
  - 3.3 Sampling methods*
- 4 OTHER METHODS
  - 4.1 Focus Groups*
  - 4.2 Life story and narrative material*
  - 4.3 Observations and exploratory methods*
- 5 DATA ANALYSIS: MAKING DECISIONS FROM FACTS
  - 5.1 Coding the questionnaire and statistical analysis: Descriptive approach*
  - 5.2 The interview and qualitative analysis: Comprehensive approach*
- 6 EXAMPLE: HOW DO YOU FIND A JOB IN BOGOTA?
  - 6.1 Data collection: The mixed approach*
  - 6.2 Statistical analysis: Social regularities*
  - 6.3 Qualitative analysis: Social norms and institutional rules*